Spring Season:

Oak Harbor: Track & Field, Bocce & Swimming (Mid-March)

Special Olympics
Washington

Fall Season:

Bowling: Oak Bowl in Oak Harbor

Winter Season:

Basketball:

Oak Harbor offers 2 – Teams and Skills.
South Whidbey offers Skills.

To be eligible to participate in Special Olympics, athletes must:

- ◇ Be at least 8 years old
- ◇ Be diagnosed by an agency or professional as having one of the following conditions: intellectual disability; a cognitive delay as determined by standardized measures such as intelligence quotient or other generally accepted measures; or a closely related development disability, i.e., functional limitations in both general learning and adaptive skills.

We accept anyone age 8 and over. We have athletes in their 70's. No skills needed. No pressure.

Through the power of sports, people with intellectual disabilities discover new strengths and abilities, skills and success.

Our athletes find joy, confidence and fulfillment – on the playing field and in life.

Time to start thinking about Summer Camps! Registration is open!

There are a variety of different overnight camps throughout Washington for individuals with disabilities of all different diagnosis and ages. Registration is open or will be open shortly. Most camps accept DDA Respite funds, some offer 1:1 ratio support and check out the different activities each one offers. Here is a list of a few in our "area" to check out.

- Camp Beausite Northwest (just 20 minutes from Coupeville/Port Townsend Ferry)
- Lions Horizon Camp (Just north of Bellingham)
- Camp Korey (Mount Vernon and families can attend too)
